

Stanley J. Clement
CEO

Stan Clement is a life-long resident of Newton. Clement has been involved in agriculture, including farming and cattle his entire life. For many years he was owner and operator of the Newton Grain Elevator. In addition to agriculture, Clement has been involved with buying and selling of land.

As a fan of racing and a life-long resident of Iowa, Clement had the vision of bringing a racetrack to Newton knowing all the benefits Iowa had to offer such a facility. Clement is passionate in his pursuit to prove the benefits Newton has to offer this facility and the economic boost this facility will have for not only Newton, but for the entire state of Iowa. He began working on this project approximately 6 years ago and saw his dream come to fruition at the Iowa Speedway groundbreaking June 21, 2005.

Clement has a wife, Brenda, two sons, two step-daughters and three grandchildren. He and Brenda continue to reside in Newton.
